Ref: BEA240024

A one double bedroom apartment occupies the first floor of Trafalgar House, boasting over 516 square feet (approximately) of meticulously designed living space. Upon entry, residents are greeted by a refined interior characterized by high-quality finishes and contemporary decor. The spacious living area provides an ideal setting for relaxation and entertainment, complemented by ample natural light and large windows. The well-appointed kitchen features integrated appliances and generous storage, while the adjacent dining area offers a functional space for meals and gatherings. Notable amenities include a private patio overlooking the communal gardens, providing a tranquil outdoor retreat.

Residents benefit from proximity to various dining, retail, and leisure options. Additionally, the nearby Uxbridge Road offers a diverse array of shops and services. Commuters will appreciate the convenient access to Ealing Broadway station, providing connections to National Rail services, the Elizabeth line (Crossrail), and the District and Central Underground lines. In summary, this apartment presents a compelling opportunity for luxury living in a well-connected and sought-after London neighbourhood, catering to the discerning urban dweller with its functional design and desirable amenities.
